ROBB'S CHILDREN WERE HUNGRY.

Wilson's Murderer Has Something More to Say About Their Trouble.

Charles Robb stated yesterday that Eli Wilson, whom he shot and instantly killed Tuesday night, had on a number of occasions provoked him. He said he was often hard pressed for money, and when he asked Wilson for back rent the latter would tell him he would pay it when he got ready. Robb said: "I am not rich and stingy, as some have stated. I was buying that house and paying for it as I could. Wilson rented the south half from me. He fell behind in his rent. Once he told me he did not have any money for me. He and his two daughters were going to market, and I asked him why he did not pay me if he had money to go to market. He said he would buy something to eat first, and then, if he had any left or felt like doing so, he would pay me. Well, I have seven children. I was pressed for money, and my children were hungry, just as hungry as Wilson said his children were sometimes. It made me angry to think that a man would not pay me what was due me when my children were in the condition they were. My children are just as good as his, and if he had money to buy them food I don't see why he couldn't have paid me so that I could have done the same thing for my children." After the excitement over the murder had subsided somewhat yesterday a number of Robb's neighbors stated that he was friendly, and was not such a person as had been reported. They said he was peaceable, attentive to work and scrupulous in regard to his own money affairs. It was learned yesterday that Robb drew rations for himself and family from the food market last winter. His physical condition did not permit him to work, but he promised to pay for the rations. Up to recently he had paid a part of the amount, and is still in debt to the charity organization. The managers of the food market say he was a quiet and apparently goodtempered man. Robb's case was continued by Judge Stubbs, in Police Court, yesterday, until Aug. 1, pending the coroner's inquest. The latter official has summoned the witnesses to appear to-morrow morning.

WILL BE PAID SOON.

The Governor Urges the Soldiers Not to Discount Their Warrants.

Governor Matthews leaves to-day for a week's visit in the East. A part of the time will be spent in Boston. The Governor desires a brief rest before taking up the duties that will devolve upon him as president of the Board of Tax Commissioners, but until now he has not felt that it would be wise to leave the State. Unless something unlooked for turns up to-day he will retire one or two more companies of militia from service at Hammond. Governor Matthews declared last night that the militia would receive their money during the latter part of August. While the statutes of the State do not provide for the payment of militia out of the general fund and make no special provision for their compensation, the Governor is determined that the young men shall not sacrifice a portion of their claims against the State by discounting them. In reference to this matter he said

"I have arranged to pay the militia between the 15th and 20th of August. I do not care to say how the money is to be raised, but it will be forthcoming. It will require something like $40,000 to pay off the men who were sent to the coal mines and to Lake county. I am handicapped by the peculiar construction of our laws, which only allow a contingent fund of $2,000 for such expenses. This fund was exhausted during the Roby race riots. I want the militia to understand that they are to be paid. Many of them need the money now, but I hope they will not sell their accounts to men who will exact an exorbitant commission for collecting them. I don't believe there will be any need of discounting the warrants at all, because every dollar will be paid between the dates I have named."

Jewelry Stolen. A. D. Johnson's house, No. 117 East Sixth street, was burglarized last night about 7:30 o'clock. The family were sitting on the front porch, when a daughter went into an upper room to get a hammock. As she went up the stairs she saw a man disappearing through a room, and later heard footsteps in the back yard. Mr. Johnson investigated, and found missing three diamond pins, one of which was valued at $300, a garnet pin, a watch and $14. The thief had gained entrance by

Chicago, 24; Pittsburg, 6. CHICAGO, July 25 .- Chicago warmed the Pittsburgs up to-day. Colcolough was pounded in an unmerciful fashion, the total footing up fourteen singles, nine doubles, a triple and two home runs. Anson led the batting with five clean hits, three of which were doubles, and was closely followed by Wilmot and Ryan. Had the full nine innings been played the chances are that the local team would have beaten Boston's record of thirty hits. Game was called at the end of the seventh inning, as both teams had to catch trains. Attend-

RUTH CLEVELAND AT THE CIRCUS.

The Baby Elephant Pleases Her More Than Any Other Feature.

Ruth and Mrs. Cleveland attended the performance of the Barnum & Bailey show when it was in Washington, recently, and the ethnological congress returned the compliment by calling in a body on the President and Mrs. Cleveland at the White House. Though the circus was all very wonderful to little Ruth, the thing which she appeared to take the keenest delight in was the performance of the baby elephant, named after her, Ruth, which plays school with the ponies and the dogs, and has a whole lot of fun knocking one of the clowns about the ring. There are a great many features in the show this season introduced, like these acts of the baby elephant, especially to please the children. The dropping of the spectacular feature has made the enlargement and brightening of the programme possible. What pleases the children also pleases the old folks, and the performances which the Barnum & Bailey show gives this season are declared to be the best it has yet put before the public. At least it has just hit the popular fancy. The big show, with its children's circus, its ethnological congress, its monster menagerie, the giant gorillas-Chiko and Johanna-and all the other marvelous and novel features will exhibit in Indianapolis next Monday.

Acton Camp Meeting Begins To-Morrow -Indianapolis Cottagers.

With the close of to-day Acton Park will be ready for its annual three weeks' camp meeting. To-day is "moving day" and the majority of the cottages will be occupied by to-night. BLOOD-THIRSTY SIOUX

THEY BATTED PHILLIPS OUT OF THE BOX IN THE THIRD INNING.

No Explanation Given for How They Came to Do It-Grand Rapids Slaughtered at Kansas City.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SIOUX CITY, July 25 .- The "Huskers" had their batting apparel on to-day and made a mark of Phillips. He was slugged in the third inning for a total of thirteen bases, scoring ten runs. Mills went into the box, and although the "Huskers" found him easily he was not punished so severely as Phillips, probably because there was no necessity of scoring. Notwithstanding that Phillips held Watkins's men down in the Hoosier capital they have always found him easy on the home ground. Hart pitched strong ball, and the visitors were unable to bunch hits on him as they did on Cunningham, Tuesday. Shields went in and Decatur, 18; Fort Wayne, 14. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DECATUR, Ind., July 25 .- The Fort Wayne and Decatur baseball clubs crossed bats in this city to-day. Heavy batting was done on both sides. Score: Decatur, 18; Fort Wayne, 14.

What is the Matter with Phillips? There is something about the pitching of Phillips away from home that is absolutely inexplicable. If he had been slaughtered in but one or two games on foreign grounds there would be no occasion for wonderment, as every pitcher has his off day occasionally, but his continued bad work on the trips should be cause for investigation. A pitcher who can do the work he has shown himself capable of on the home grounds should not be hammered at will when away. The club officials might find out what the trouble is if they would take the matter in hand and give it a thorough investigation. It has created much talk, and the public would like to know why the big pitcher, who is such a favorite here, proves such an easy mark as soon as he gets out of Indianapolis.

Are Training Hard for the Game. The baseball clash between the militia and the Marion Club at the League Park Saturday afternoon will settle the question whether politicians can quell strikes as well as soldiers. President Elliott, of the Marion Club, it is said, purchased a wagon load of watermelons last week in order to practice his men in the science of batting, and they have progressed so well that he intends to use marbles a day before the game so that his men will not know what it is to strike out. On the other hand, Colonel Smith has been shooting cannon balls at his men, so as to make them hard hitters. Both sides are confident of victory. Eight hundred tickets have already been sold.

Stomach

A WONDERFUL STORY OF AN OLD LADY.

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., May 9, 1894.

The Lyon Medicine Co., Indianapolis, Ind. I wish to congratulate you in being in possession of such a grand medicine as "Lyon's Seven Wonders." I was in very poor health for a long time, could eat no solid food, and scarcely anything else; had no appetite, but a continued distress in my stomach, and was very poor in flesh.
Your remedy being recommended by one who had tried them, I got a box of same, and can cheerfully and gladly say, after using them, the distress in my stomach entirely ceased, my appetite increased wonderfully, and I gained in flesh very perceptibly. I am a lady seventy-four years of age, and can say that "Lyon's Seven Wonders" have given a new lease on life. I feel grateful toward you and your remedy. It does more than you claim for it, and no words of praise can do it justice. Gratefully yours, MRS. CYNTHIA RANSOM.
